

COLLEGE OF THE OZARKS[®]

Full-time Agriculture Teaching/Assistant Dairy Farm Manager Position

College of the Ozarks invites applications for a full-time position in agriculture teaching and assistant dairy farm manager, rank and salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. This position has become available due to the retirement of a faculty member and subsequent farm manager changes. Preferred starting date is June 1, 2010.

The position requires a self-motivated individual with an in-depth understanding of dairy production at the farm level. Experience with Holstein dairy cattle and milk processing would be advantageous. Preferred qualifications include a master's degree or greater in animal or dairy science, or a related field.

This position is half-time teaching and half-time assistant dairy farm manager. The assistant manager requires supervising students at our 50-60 cow working dairy and milk processing plant. This position requires a commitment to excellence in teaching and dairy management, and serving as a mentor and positive Christian role model to our students.

This position may lead to a multi-year letter of appointment. College of the Ozarks, also known as "Hard Work U", is a small (1500 students) liberal arts, work-study college with a commitment to Christian faith and service located in southwest Missouri near Branson (www.cofo.edu).

Send letter of application, résumé, official transcripts and three letters of recommendation (preferably one from your pastor) to: Dr Marilyn Graves, Dean of the College, PO Box 17, Point Lookout, MO 65726 or email cmarley@cofo.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. College of the Ozarks is an EO/AA Employer.
